CAREER OBJECTIVE

Marketing and growth leader with 12+ years of experience operating across strategy, product ownership, and AI-driven execution. Currently scopes, ships, and governs technology platforms (LMS, web products, AI conversion agents) alongside traditional growth and brand responsibility — functioning as a hybrid Growth + Product + AI-systems operator rather than a single-discipline marketer. Seeking roles where strategic ownership, technical fluency, and AI-fluent execution are valued together.

CORE SKILLS

- Marketing Strategy & Growth: GTM strategy, ABM campaign design, brand governance, demand generation, competitive intelligence
- Product Ownership: Sprint prioritization, requirements gating, dispatch/ratification governance, cross-functional delivery
- Technical & AI Fluency: Git workflows, infrastructure decisions (cloud storage, database regions), AI-agent-directed development (Claude Code), prompt engineering
- Martech & Tools: HubSpot, Apollo, Next.js/Nuxt ecosystem awareness, Tailwind, Vercel, Neon Postgres
- Leadership: Team management, vendor evaluation, escalation design, training and enablement

- Lead marketing, growth, and product ownership across YALLO's technology and talent consulting business, operating with scope beyond the formal title — including infrastructure decisions, brand governance, and platform architecture calls typically owned by a co-founder or VP.
- Own end-to-end product strategy for saasinator.ai, including architecture decisions (Claude Haiku 4.5 + Groq fallback, Neon Postgres, pgvector RAG) for an AI sales conversion agent; ran two rounds of persona-based QA testing (15 total fix commits) that reduced clean-conversion failures to zero P0 defects.
- Serve as Product Owner for the YALLO AI Academy LMS: a 40-table database, 49-screen platform spanning 9 sprints; directed three full design-system iterations (v1–v3) and personally implemented and merged front-end design changes via Git.
- Built and own YALLO's core marketing infrastructure: a 200+ page company website, ABM framework, and a four-channel LinkedIn content engine, achieving a 4x increase in LinkedIn visibility.
- Designed and led a full-funnel ABM campaign for a major enterprise account (41 contacts, 5 buyer personas), including persona-specific messaging, a branded landing page, and a staged multi-touch email sequence.
- Built a repeatable competitive-intelligence framework (structured research methodology + synthesis pipeline) feeding board-level strategic briefs on positioning, pricing, and partnership decisions.
- Conceived, scoped, and shipped a free 9-module public marketing course (28 videos, 45 quiz questions, 10 assignments) end-to-end under personal authorship.
- Manage a team of 4 direct reports across content, research, and web development, with clear delegation of execution paired with personal sign-off on all commercially sensitive or brand-risk decisions.
